

12 months ago | 480 views | 0  | 3  |  |

Sandhills Alternative Academy students and staff volunteered with United Way this week to lend a helping hand with gift wrap. United Way will be wrapping for a donation at Belk through the Christmas season. Pictured are Michelle Parrish, executive director with United Way and Mary Daniel, Tequaria Alexis and Culinda Short with Sandhills Alternative Academy. All proceeds will benefit the 18 partnering agencies with United Way.